

Hakim Volume 1 chapter 5

Put on Your Earmuffs

Who is this chapter about?

- Eskimo – describe themselves as the Inuit – “the people”
- Eskimo means “eater of raw flesh”

What was the climate like?

- Arctic and subarctic climates to deal with
- Temperatures below zero for most of the year
- Landform = tundra

When did this take place?

- No time reference, but we think the Inuit were the last group of people to arrive

Where was this?

- Alaska, Canada, Greenland and Siberia

Why did they use animal skins?

- To keep warm
- Garments were lightweight and watertight

How did they feed themselves?

- Hunted and fish through the ice
- Too cold to grow anything
- Kayaks were used for fishing and umiaks were used for whaling

Notes:

- Lived in igloos, pit houses, tents made from animal skin in the summer
